No. I. Population of New South Wales: Annual Estimates

Note. For periods between censuses of population, the population of the State is estimated by adding the subsequent natural increase (the excess of births over deaths) and recorded net migration (the excess of arrivals over departures) to the population ascertained at the previous census. The intercensal estimates are subject to revision when the population is ascertained at the next census, and any discrepancy disclosed by the census is added to the recorded net migration. Population estimates for periods between the 1954 and 1961 censuses have been revised in the light of the final results of the 1961 census.

No. 8. Wage and Salary Earners in Civilian Employment in N.S.W.: Government and Private

(Excluding Rural Workers, Females in Private Domestic Service, and Defence Forces)

Notes:-

- 1. The estimates of employment given in Tables 8 and 9 are derived from three main sources;-
 - (a) monthly employment in factories, as recorded in the annual factory censuses;
 (b) monthly returns from governmental authorities; and
 (c) monthly returns supplied by employers for purposes of Commonwealth pay-roll taxation.

 - These are supplemented by some other direct records of monthly employment (e.g. hospitals) and by estimates of the number of employees outside the scope of the main sources. The numbers of factory employees shown for months subsequent to June, 1962, are estimates which are subject to revision in the light of the results of the factory censuses for 1962-63 and later years.
- 2. Workers in rural industry, females in private domestic service, members of the full-time defence forces at home or abroad, and National Service Trainees in camp are excluded.
- 3. The estimates are designed to measure monthly trends in employment in the defined field. They are compiled on an establishment or enterprise basis and therefore do not cover exactly the same area of industry as the industry tabulations compiled on the occasion of a population census from the schedules provided by individuals.

^{*} Relates to industrial disputes involving a stoppage of work for a minimum of 10 mandays. The figures include the time lost by employees who worked in establishments where stoppages occurred but were not themselves parties to the disputes; they exclude the time lost, as a result of the disputes, by employees in other establishments.

Note. Tables 12 and 13 are based upon the records of the Commonwealth Meteorologist. The divisions correspond approximately with the statistical divisions shown on the map in frontispiece of the Official Year Book of New South Wales, each division being subdivided into two sectors indicated by the letters N, S, E, or W according as they constitute the northern, southern, eastern, or western portion of the division concerned. Normal Rainfall is based on a period ended 1929.

No. 64. Retail Trade: Value of Retail Sales in New South Wales

The figures shown below represent the sales of goods (as distinct from services, repairs, accommodation, entertainment, meals, etc.) by establishments selling retail goods from fixed premises, and include the retail sales of establishments principally engaged in wholesale, manufacturing, or servicing activities. The figures for the year 1961-62 are the results of the 1961-62 Census of Retail Establishments; the figures for other periods are estimates which have been based on sample surveys and have been revised in the light of the scope and the results of the 1961-62 Census.

This statistical series covers credit schemes which involve repayment by regular predetermined instal-Note. This statistical series covers credit schemes which involve repayment by regular predetermined instalments and which relate primarily to the financing of retail sales of goods. It embraces hire purchase, time-payment, budget account, and personal loan schemes, but does not cover lay-bys, credit accounts not payable by regular predetermined instalments, the financing of sales of land and buildings, property improvements, and services (e.g. repair work and travel), and rental and leasing schemes. Many figures have been revised since last issue.

No. 72. Index of Prices of Shares on Sydney Stock Exchange

This index relates to ordinary shares of the principal companies (excluding banking companies) listed on the Sydney Stock Exchange whose business in New South Wales is extensive.

The prices of individual shares are unweighted, and each group average is the mean of the average monthly prices per £1 of paid-up capital. The aggregate index is the average of all the shares included in the groups with the addition of 34 miscellaneous shares. There is no base period as the index represents the ratio per cent. of the average prices of ordinary shares to their par values, adjustment being made where capital is written off or bonus shares are issued.

No. 73. New Money Capital Raised by Australian Companies

These statistics relate to new capital raised by companies incorporated in Australia and the Australian Territories, distinguishing between companies listed on the Australian Stock Exchanges (listed companies) and all other companies (unlisted companies). New money raised is the net amount of cash transferred from the investing public to the companies, and consists of the total amount of cash received by the companies less the amounts not involving a transfer of funds from the investing public (cash subscribed by associated companies, and other cash subscriptions used to redeem shares, debentures, etc. or to purchase existing shares, debentures, etc. in other companies). Borrowings by bank overdraft and temporary advances, deposits accepted by banks, insurance and pastoral companies, and building societies, and loans to authorised dealers in the short-term money market are excluded from the statistics.

No. 98. Weighted Average Minimum Weekly Wage Rates*, New South Wales

- Notes. 1. The indexes of minimum wage rates embrace a representative range of occupations and are based on the occupation and industry structures in 1954. The wage rates used in the indexes are the rates payable for a full week's work (excluding overtime), as prescribed in the relevant industrial awards, determinations, and agreements. The rural industries are excluded from the indexes.
 - 2. The money amounts shown should not be regarded as actual current averages, but as an index of changes expressed in money terms.

^{*} For State Awards, the amounts shown to February, 1959, represent the basic wage together with so much of any margin and any further amount necessary to make the minimum wage payable equivalent to 75 per cent. of the basic wage for males. Following the increase in the basic wage to the 75 per cent. equivalent, the amount shown from February, 1959, is the basic wage exclusive of any margin. This change was applied in State Awards from different dates, beginning in March, 1959.
† Quarterly adjustments for movements in retail prices were discontinued in September, 1953, in both Commonwealth and State Awards. They were restored in State Awards in November, 1955.

No. 100. Consumer Price Index

The Consumer Price Index is designed to measure quarterly variations in the level of retail prices for goods and services which represent a high proportion of the expenditure of wage earner households. Significant changes in the pattern of the expenditure since 1948 have been reflected in the Index by the introduction, from time to time, of additional items and altered weighting patterns.

Base of each Index: 1952-53 = 100.0

^{*} Weighted average for six State capital cities.

No. 101. Wholesale Price (Basic Materials and Foodstuffs) Index

Commodities are priced in their primary or basic form wherever possible. Prices are drawn mainly from Melbourne sources. Apart from locally produced building materials, and one or two minor commodities, the price movements may be taken as representative of variations in wholesale prices of basic materials in most Australian markets.

* Represents only such imported commodities as are included in the Wholesale Price Index. This index does not measure changes in import prices generally.

No. 102. Export Price Index, Australia

Notes:

- The current Export Price Index is compiled as a weighted average of the relative price movements of 29 commodities, the weights being based on the exports (valued at 1959-60 prices) of the commodities in the five years 1956-57 to 1960-61. In these years, the selected commodities accounted for about 83 per cent. of the total value of Australian exports.
- A comparable series of index numbers has been compiled by linking, at the year 1959-60, the "All Groups" Index in the current and previous Export Price Indexes. The index numbers (Base: 1959-60=100) for the years 1954-55 to 1958-59 are 114, 105, 117, 102, and 90, respectively.

Metropolis

In Tables 103, 105, and 106, the group "Metropolis" differs from the Metropolis as defined for general statistical purposes in that it includes the whole of Blacktown and Liverpool Municipalities and Baulkham Hills and Hornsby Shires, only portions of which are included in the statistical Metropolis.

COMMONWEALTH BUREAU OF CENSUS AND STATISTICS NEW SOUTH WALES OFFICE

PUBLICATIONS

The publications listed below are obtainable from the Deputy Commonwealth Statistician, The Commonwealth Centre, Elizabeth Street (near Hunter Street), Sydney. In addition to these publications, the Deputy Commonwealth Statistician issues a number of mimeographed publications, particulars of which may be obtained on application.

In the Official Year Book of New South Wales, the statistics of the State are explained and analysed and information is given about their legislative and administrative background. The Year Book is prepared in Parts (which may bear different numbers from year to year), each of which is issued separately as printed; the Volume is issued when all the Parts have appeared.
